

Jamie Calder, RN, FCN

A Faith Community Nurse (FCN) is a professional nurse who is called and committed to the healing ministry of the church. As a member of your church staff, the (FCN) focuses on health promotion, disease prevention, and the holistic needs of the body, mind and spirit.

The (FCN) does not replace the doctor or the pastor, but assists both. Unlike the doctor, the Faith Community Nurse recognizes the importance of spiritual health; unlike the pastor, the (FCN) can provide medical support and assistance.

The (FCN) fills five health-related roles:

- Health Educator promoting wellness
- Health counselor advocating personal responsibility
- Teacher and coordinator of health volunteers
- Liaison with community resources
- Integrator of faith and health
